

The Calgary John Howard Society – “Our community active in crime prevention”

Volunteer Tutors Needed!

“Almost 48% of Canadians have difficulty dealing with printed materials — They may not be able to read and understand a classified ad, find the date on a deposit slip or figure out instructions on a medicine bottle.” From: Movement for Canadian Literacy, June 2001

---

The Literacy Program

The Calgary John Howard Society is a non-profit organization that assists people who have been in conflict with the law, as well as provides education and services to the Calgary community. Our Adult Literacy Program is recruiting volunteers!

- Orientation and training provided
- Police Check required (no cost)

The Calgary John Howard Society has a free literacy and upgrading program. It is for offenders, ex-offenders, parolees, and their family members. We provide resources and materials, and our volunteer tutors provide one-on-one assistance to learners.

If you are interested in a rewarding, flexible volunteer opportunity, please contact:

Lynn: lynnm@johnhoward.calgary.ab.ca

or call 543-7823